

ORAL LANGUAGE FOR DAILY USE

Grade 5

by

Sharon Altena and Jan Leik

Published by Frank Schaffer Publications®

Table of Contents

Introduction4
Guidelines for Skills5
Web Sites for Kids6
Strategies for Writing7
Activities8
Editing Checklist80

Week 1: What's in a Name? Brown

Day 1	a. in 1858 charles browne he were an reporter four the cleveland plain dealer b. juana said he writed funny letters from a imaginary man he called artemus ward
2	a. does anyone knowed the name of a famous botanist from scotland asked mine teacher b. yes peter answered hes robert brown the discoverer of the nucleus in living cells
3	a. george brown a newspaper publisher and politician he helped shape canadas laws and customs b. wasn't his newspaper the toronto globe a powerful influence on public opinion seth
4	a. john brown were a american abolitionist who launched an attack on harpers ferry on oct 16 1859 b. the first shot fired at harpers ferry it have been called the shot that triggered the civil war in the u s
5	a. marcia j brown illustrated a lota books and she wonned three caldecott medals b. she wonned a caldecott for a book she illustrated in 1962 once a mouse

Do More

Create an imaginary character. Then write a funny letter from that character.

Look at the art in two books that won a Caldecott award. Compare the styles of art.

Corrected Sentences

Skills Covered

Day 1	a. In 1858, Charles Browne was a reporter for the Cleveland Plain Dealer. b. Juana said, "He wrote funny letters from an imaginary man he called Artemus Ward."	a. Comma (introductory phrase); capitalize (proper noun—person, newspaper); double subject; subject-verb agreement; article (a); homophone (for); underline (newspaper) b. Capitalize (proper noun—person, character; first word in quote); comma (direct quote); quotation marks (direct quote); verb; article (an)
2	a. "Does anyone know the name of a famous botanist from Scotland?" asked my teacher. b. "Yes," Peter answered, "he's Robert Brown, the discoverer of the nucleus in living cells."	a. Quotation marks (direct quote); verb; capitalize (proper noun—country); question mark (direct quote); pronoun (case) b. Quotation marks (direct quote); comma (direct quote, split quote, appositive); capitalize (proper nouns—persons); apostrophe (contraction)
3	a. George Brown, a newspaper publisher and politician, helped shape Canada's laws and customs. b. Wasn't his newspaper, the Toronto Globe, a powerful influence on public opinion, Seth?	a. Capitalize (proper noun—person, country); comma (appositive); double subject; apostrophe (possessive) b. Apostrophe (contraction); comma (appositive, direct address); capitalize (proper noun—newspaper, person); underline (newspaper); question mark
4	a. John Brown was an American abolitionist who launched an attack on Harper's Ferry on Oct. 16, 1859. b. The first shot fired at Harper's Ferry has been called the shot that triggered the Civil War in the U.S.	a. Capitalize (proper noun—person, city, month; proper adjective—nationality); subject-verb agreement; article (an); apostrophe (possessive); period (abbreviation); comma (date) b. Capitalize (proper noun—city, event, country); apostrophe (possessive); double subject; subject-verb agreement; periods (abbreviation)
5	a. Marcia J. Brown illustrated a lot of books, and she won three Caldecott Medals. b. She won a Caldecott for a book she illustrated in 1962, Once a Mouse.	a. Capitalize (proper noun—person, award); period (abbreviation); enunciation (lot of); verb; comma (before and in compound sentence) b. Verb; capitalize (proper noun—award, book); comma (appositive); underline (book)

Week 2: What's in a Name? Green

Day 1	a. did kate greenaway draw the pictures in a book called mother goose b. yes and her also wrote one called the language of flowers
2	a. wouldn't you think there would be a famous botanist named green four mine report asked paige b. we couldn't find any in the encyclopedia but there were a mining engineer named john greenway
3	a. was nathanael greene an general in the american revolutionary war b. some people think he was almost as important as general george washington
4	a. won of the worlds richest women hetty green was thought to have over $100000000.00 b. didn't she made most of her money by dealing in real estate railroad securities and bonds
5	a. have you heard about bonanza a tv show about a man and his three sons living in the old west b. yes the role of the father was played by lorne green and his three sons was adam hoss and little joe

Do More

Use a book or the Internet to find out more about Hetty Green. Write the first paragraph of a news story about her. Use facts, but also include one opinion about her. The opinion can be something a writer said about her.

Write a riddle about a character from Mother Goose or another story.